Portland's Central Eastside Mural District is full of street art murals, graffiti, and exciting urban adventures. This industrial sanctuary began as Produce Row where fruits and vegetables from the fertile Willamette Valley came into the city and were distributed to regional markets via the river and railroads. Today, its older historic and industrial buildings are well-suited for re-use, and its gritty urban character and centralized location attracts urban flâneurs, artists, and photographers. It is a hotspot for manufacturing, innovation, sustainable industries, hip eateries, and bars. The Central Eastside Industrial District is also a bustling cultural hub with its monthly Night Market, First Friday, Red Door Meet Car Show, legendary Burnside Skatepark, and countless street art murals by local and visiting artists. This map is just a starting point. The streets are always changing, and finding street art is often times like a scavenger hunt. We have provided you some insider clues, but now it is up to you to find the hidden treasures the Central Eastside has to offer!
